

BUTLER FAMILY FUND

PROGRAM GRANTS: SPRING 1994

Homeless Families

Casa Central Social Services, Chicago, IL For the La Posada homeless families program	$10,000
Dignity Housing, Philadelphia, PA For general operating support	$20,000
Little Sisters of the Assumption Family Health Services "Project Hope", Dorchester, MA For support of the Adult Learner Program	$20,000
Low Income Housing Information Service, Washington, DC To conduct a series of forums with low-income tenants and advocates to inform the Department of Housing and Urban Development how it can maintain and improve public housing	$15,000
Metro Atlanta Task Force for the Homeless, Atlanta, GA For general support	$20,000
National Coalition for the Homeless, Inc., Washington, DC To advocate on behalf of school-age homeless children	$15,000
National Housing and Community Development Law Project "Legal Services Homelessness Task Force", Washington, DC To advocate for expanded access to permanent housing for homeless and relocated families.	$10,000
Washington Regional Association of Grantmakers "Community Development Support Collaborative", Washington, DC For organizational support	$5,000

At-Risk Youth

Community Chest, Inc., Reno, NV To fund a Rural Youth Council	$15,000
East New York Urban Youth Corps Housing Development Fund, Inc. Brooklyn, NY To support the expansion of its youth programs through the hiring of a Director of Youth Services.	$20,000
Jewish Fund for Justice, Inc., New York, NY For grantmaking in the area of at-risk youth.	$20,000
National Association of Public Interest Law, Washington, DC A two-year grant to fund the Youth PEACE Project, a project to prevent youth violence.	$30,000
National Coalition of Community Foundations for Youth Kansas City, MO To support leadership training for youth, and complementary training for an adult steering committee, on how to integrate youth into its governance structure, as part of a pilot in Kansas City to prevent youth violence.	$10,000
Youth Impact Centers of Dallas, Dallas, TX To expand youth service and leadership program to new sites in Dallas.	$15,000